

Working with LOLER (SOP)

Course Objectives:

To enable course members to:

- To understand the requirements of the Lifting Operations & Lifting Equipment Regulations 1998
- To understand how LOLER links into other management objectives & legislation
- To gain a working knowledge of LOLER
- To identify a competent person
- To understand what equipment and operations are covered by LOLER
- To identify what maintenance and thorough inspection records are required to be kept
- To identify equipment that is not covered by LOLER
- Identify the factors to consider when planning a lifting operation
- Identify the nature and level of risks associated with lifting operations
- Understand how lifting equipment should be marked
- Understand what maintenance records and logs must be kept
- Understand when and by whom thorough inspections of lifting equipment should take place
- Understand how lifting equipment should be stored

Course Aims: This course has been developed to assist managers and supervisors gain a working knowledge of the Lifting Operations & Lifting Equipment Regulations 1998.

Who is the course designed for? Line Managers & Supervisors of employees working with chainsaws.

Duration: 1 day

Instructor/Trainee Ratio: 1:12