

Course Objectives: At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Prepare accurate paper work including line summary, emergency procedure documentation
- Understand E.A.W.R, ESQCR 2002 and amendments
- Understand all essential factors and legislation pertaining to the preparation of a full line survey

Who is the course designed for?

This course is ideal for anyone wanting to progress in the utility arboriculture industry in the role of a surveyor. Training takes place in the classroom and onsite.

Pre-requisites: UA1 & UA2.1

Duration: 3 Days Training + 1 Day Assessment

Instructor/Trainee Ratio: Max 1:4

Course Content:

- Preparing risk assessment
- Legislation (e.g. Electricity Act, Wildlife Act)
- Prepare emergency procedures
- Appropriate pruning/felling methods
- Additional precautions to landowner contact
- Identify significant risks and control measures
- Prepare a line span survey
- Grid references
- Restricted cuts
- Expected conduct of a surveyor
- Environmental protection

Required PPE:

- Outdoor clothing & shoes/boots
- Hi viz jacket

Required Equipment:

- Pens, pencils, ruler
- Clipboard/folder